

EXERCISES

OF THE

ONE HUNDREDTH

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

OF THE

University of North Carolina

JUNE 1895

SUNDAY, JUNE 2ND.

11.00 A. M. Baccalaureate Sermon, by Rev. Alexander Lacy Phillips, in Gerrard Hall.

MONDAY, JUNE 3RD.

8.30 P. M. Anniversary meetings of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Societies in their Halls.

TUESDAY, JUNE 4TH.

4.00 P. M. Senior Class-Day Exercises in Memorial Hall.

8.30 P. M. Oratorical Contest by Representatives of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Societies, in Memorial Hall.

10.00 P. M. Faculty Reception in the Gymnasium.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5TH.

CELEBRATION OF THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ORGANIZATION OF THE UNIVERSITY.

The Procession will form in front of the South Hall at 10.45 A. M., under the direction of the Marshal and will march around the Caldwell Monument and Memorial Hall. Only ladies will be admitted into Memorial Hall until after the procession enters. The public is invited to join the procession.

. M. Orations by Alfred Moore Waddell and dolphus Hill Eller. Poems by Cornelia Phillips pencer, James D. Lynch, and Henry Jerome tockard.

M. Alumni Banquet in the Gymnasium. (Tickets may be had of the Bursar in the South Building, at the University Drug Store near the ost Office, or at the door of the Gymnasium. Price,
1.00.)

M. Addresses in Memorial Hall by Henry Armand London and Stephen Beauregard Weeks. Reunion of the Alumni by Classes. As the roll of each class is called, its members will please go upon the rostrum and take seats. Special exercises will be onducted by several Classes at the time they re called.

THURSDAY, JUNE 6TH.

COMMENCEMENT DAY.

A. M. Commencement Exercises in Memorial Hall; Orations by members of the Graduating Class, announcement of honors and conferring of degrees.

M. Baseball on the Athletic Field.

M. Concert by the Glee Club in Memorial Hall.

GENERAL INFORMATION .

All hack fares are 25c, day or night, to or from station, or between any points in Chapel Hill.

Information about lodging, etc., may be had in Registrar's office, South Building, 1st floor, middle entrance.

A comfortable restaurant in the South Building, the Registrar's Office, will furnish meals on the European plan to visiting Alumni and their friends.

Tickets to entertainments may be had in the Registrar's Office, South Building, 1st floor, middle entrance or at the University Drug Store near the Post office.

SCHEDULE OF DEPARTURE OF TRAINS.

TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

JUNE 4, 5, 6, 7.

10.30. A. M. For Raleigh and the East.

4.18 P. M. For Greensboro and the West.

3.30 A. M. Connecting with night trains from Greensboro to Raleigh and with early morning trains from Raleigh to Greensboro.

The special train from Raleigh on Wednesday leaves Chapel Hill at 7 P. M., reaching Raleigh at 10 P. M.

It requires about one-quarter of an hour to get from Chapel Hill to the R. R. station.